Another extract from Pope Leo's Dilexi te.

"Where the world sees threats, she (the Church) sees children; where walls are built, she builds bridges. She knows that her proclamation of the Gospel is credible only when it is translated into gestures of closeness and welcome. And she knows that in every rejected migrant, it is Christ himself who knocks at the door of the community. (Paragraph 75)"

Not surprisingly for a new Pope who has already spoken about the struggles of migrants, Pope Leo includes care for migrants as an essential aspect of our care for the poor. He traces this Christian obligation back to the newborn Church which experienced discrimination against its Greek members. Pope Leo says that Christians must work to care for migrants and to integrate them into society, not allowing them to be marginalized. In fact, he ties our treatment of migrants to our credibility as witnesses for the Gospel.
